25X1 5. [] Met with Tom Scott, Chief Clerk of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and William Woodruff, Assistant Chief Clerk, and assisted in preparing a statement for Senator Carl Hayden's use in floor discussion on the McCarthy resolution. I also left with Mr. Scott, a copy of our analysis of the floor debate which took place on 16 May along with the Committee report on the Mansfield resolution containing Senator Hayden's minority views.

25X1 6. [] Delivered to William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and to members of our Senate Subcommittees, copies of our analysis of the floor debate on the McCarthy resolution on 16 May.

11. [] At the request of Senator Saltonstall, met with him to review certain points involving the McCarthy resolution in Foreign Relations. Subsequently, the CIA Subcommittee met without Agency witnesses for an hour and a half on this topic. Apparently it was the plan that Senator Russell was to make a point of order with a request that the resolution be referred to the Armed Services Committee. Further, Senator Hayden had prepared a statement which he was going to deliver. It is my understanding that Fulbright and Russell agreed privately to put the whole matter off until 1 June. On the floor, Senator Fulbright stated that he planned to bring the resolution to the floor on 1 June and Senator Russell stated he wished to put the Senate on notice that at that time he was going to make a point of order.

12. [] Talked with Senator Margaret Chase Smith after the brief floor discussion on the McCarthy resolution. She reported her understanding of what had happened on the floor and then from her discussion of the Subcommittee meeting I gained the impression that she did not fully understand the specific terms of the resolution. Efforts will be made to clarify this not only with Senator Smith but also with each of the other Senators.

15. [REDACTED] Tom Scott telephoned late in the evening on behalf of Senator Carl Hayden. Scott advised that the CIA Subcommittees were meeting tomorrow morning at ten o'clock and that thereafter Senator Hayden was going on the floor to speak against the McCarthy resolution. Mr. Scott had wanted assistance from us on certain matters. He was given what information could be given over the telephone and other materials were to be furnished to him at 8:30 tomorrow morning.
